

Dear all

Above subject matter refers.

The Mauritius Ports Authority wishes to inform you the following:

- (1) No request for crew change will be entertained until further notice.
- (2) Shore leave for crew members of vessels presently berthed at Port Louis is suspended for the next 14 days until further notice. However, under exceptional circumstances shore leave will be granted provided that the shipping agent submit an application to the MPA/Port Health with valid justification.
- (3) A protocol to service vessels calling at Port Louis having sailed less than 14 days from the last port of call is being finalised with the Health Authorities and will be communicated to you in due course.

Regards
